NOTES TO CONDENSED
CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. OPERATIONS

Business

Be Active Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") sells frozen yogurt and fudge bars and offers ice creams in various flavors to retailers with stores in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. The Company intends to expand its regional growth to a national level and global presence in sales of premium quality low-fat, low calorie, low-carbohydrate, vitamin and probiotic enriched frozen yogurt and products under the brand name "Jala".

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements and related notes have been prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and with the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding interim financial reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements presentation. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for interim financial statements have been included. This Form 10-Q should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of the results for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2015.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and our wholly-owned subsidiary and have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

3. GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America applicable to a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has not yet established revenues sufficient to cover its operating costs and allow it to continue as a going concern. The Company has incurred significant net losses since inception and at March 31, 2015, has an accumulated deficit of $16,314,377 and stockholders' deficit of $791,343. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating expenses until it becomes profitable. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations.

In order to continue as a going concern, the Company will need, among other things, additional capital resources. Management's plan is to obtain such resources for the Company through sales of its products in combination with equity and/or debt financing. While as indicated in the Note 9, the Company obtained approximately $425,000 of gross proceeds from the debt offering on December 31, 2014 and currently has limited working capital necessary for sales and production, there can be no assurance that this will be sufficient for the Company to continue as a going concern.

The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. Some of the more significant estimates required to be made by management include the fair value of derivatives and other stockholder equity based transactions.

Financial Instruments

The Company considers the carrying amounts of financial instruments, including cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses and the face amount of its convertible notes payable to approximate their fair values because of their relatively short maturities.

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The Company uses a fair value hierarchy based on three levels of inputs, of which the first two are considered observable and the last unobservable, that may be used to measure fair value which are the following:

BE ACTIVE HOLDINGS, INC.
NOTES TO CONDENSED
CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities and less observable from objective sources.

The Company's derivative liabilities (see Note 9) are valued at each reporting period using level 3 inputs.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company maintains cash balances at one financial institution. The Company has not experienced any losses in this account. Federal legislation provides for FDIC insurance of up to $250,000.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist of amounts due from customers. The Company records an allowance for doubtful receivables, if necessary, to allow for any amounts which may be unrecoverable. The allowance is based upon an analysis of the Company's prior collection experience, customer creditworthiness and current economic trends. Account balances are written off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014, no allowance for doubtful accounts was required.

Inventory

Inventory consists primarily of packaging, raw materials and finished goods held for distribution. Inventory is stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out) or market. In evaluating whether inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market, management considers such factors as the amount of inventory on hand and the distribution channel, the estimated time to sell such inventory, remaining shelf life and the current expected market conditions. Adjustments to reduce inventory to its net realizable value are charged to cost of goods sold.

Shipping and Handling Costs

The Company classifies shipping and handling costs as part of selling expense. Shipping and handling costs were $3,230 and $0 for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method.

Maintenance and repairs are charged to operating expenses as they are incurred. Improvements and betterments, which extend the lives of the assets, are capitalized. The cost and accumulated depreciation of assets retired or otherwise disposed of are removed from the appropriate accounts and any profit or loss on the sale or disposition of such assets is credited or charged to income.

Derivative Liabilities

The Company's derivative liabilities are related to the ratchet reset provision of the Company's warrants to purchase common stock which prohibit the Company from concluding that the warrants are indexed to its own stock and from the provisions of its' convertible notes payable. For derivative instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair market value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in fair value recognized in operations for each reporting period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes Option-Pricing Model to value the derivative instruments of its' outstanding stock warrants at inception and subsequent valuation dates and the value is re-assessed at the end of each reporting period in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 815 and a binomial valuation model in connection with its' convertible debt.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized, net of discounts, rebates, promotional adjustments, price adjustments, slotting fees and estimated returns, upon transfer of title and risk to the customer which occurs at shipping (F.O.B. terms). Upon shipment, the Company has no further performance obligations.

BE ACTIVE HOLDINGS, INC.
NOTES TO CONDENSED

Share-Based Compensation

The Company recognizes compensation expense for all share-based payment awards made to employees, directors and others based on the estimated fair values on the date of the grant, as subsequently adjusted for certain contingently issuable shares. Common stock equivalents are valued using the Black-Scholes Option-Pricing Model using the known or equivalent market value of common stock on the date of valuation, an expected dividend yield of zero, the remaining period or maturity date of the common stock equivalent and the expected volatility of common stock. Shares contingently issuable based on the future value of the Company's stock and the common shares outstanding at a stated future date are periodically re-valued at each balance sheet date based on the common shares currently outstanding and the current traded price per share.

Income Taxes

The Company provides for income taxes under FASB ASC 740 – Income Taxes, which requires the use of an assets and liabilities approach in accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse. A valuation allowance is provided when realization of deferred tax assets is not considered more likely than not.

The Company's policy is to classify income tax assessments, if any, for interest in interest expense and for penalties in general and administrative expenses.

As of March 31, 2015, management has evaluated and concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the Company's financial statements.

The Company's income tax returns for the years 2012, 2013 and 2014 are subject to examination by the tax authorities.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising was $0 for both of the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

5. INVENTORY

As of March 31, 2015, inventory consists of the following:

Materials	$	25,269
Finished product		79,962
Total	$	105,231

6. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consists of the following:

	March 31, 2015	December 31, 2014
Furniture and Fixtures	$ 6,138	$ 6,138
Website	18,000	18,000
	24,138	24,138
Less: Accumulated depreciation	4,914	3,243
Balance	$ 19,224	$ 20,895

Depreciation and amortization expense for March 31, 2015 and 2014 were $1,671 and $240, respectively.

7. INCOME (LOSS) PER COMMON SHARE

Basic income (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income or loss attributable to the common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Fully diluted income (loss) per share is computed similar to basic income (loss) per share except that the denominator for fully diluted income per share is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued in order to present their dilutive effect unless the effect of such potential shares would be antidilutive. Potential common shares consist of incremental common shares issuable upon the exercise of warrants, convertible preferred shares and convertible notes payable. In addition, in computing net income (loss) per share on a fully diluted basis, the Company adjusts for the interest expense on convertible debt as if the debt had been converted for all periods presented.

BE ACTIVE HOLDINGS, INC.
NOTES TO CONDENSED
CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As of March 31, 2015, the number of potential dilutive common shares is comprised of the following:

Common share equivalents of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock	11,663,921
Common share equivalents of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock	20,000,000
Common share equivalents of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (*)	1,000,000
Convertible Promissory Note Payable	74,166,666
Due Diligence payable	64,000,000
 Total	 170,830,587

(*) Weighted from date of issue

The above common stock equivalents were used in computing the dilutive weighted average shares outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 2015. The Company recorded a net (loss) for the three months ended March 31, 2014, and therefore the dilutive common shares are considered anti-dilutive and not included in the calculation of fully diluted per share amounts in 2014.

8. DUE TO OFFICERS/STOCKHOLDERS

On February 27, 2014, one stockholder who had resigned in March 2013 agreed to release the Company from its $247,021 loan obligation to him which was recorded as forgiveness of debt income in the three months ended March 31, 2014. On February 25, 2015, one stockholder agreed to release the Company from its $25,555 loan obligation to him which was recorded as forgiveness of debt income for the three months ended March 31, 2015 (see Note 15).

9. SECURED CONVERTIBLE NOTES PAYABLE

On December 31, 2014, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") with certain accredited investors to sell to the Purchasers an aggregate of up to $500,000 of principal amount of notes due December 31, 2015 representing the Purchasers' subscription amount. The Agreement defines certain covenants and provides for a purchase price reset for a period of three years, unless the securities have been assigned, whereby should the Company issue or sell any shares of common stock or any common stock equivalents at a price less than the Purchasers' conversion price per share, the Company will be required to issue additional shares of common stock to the Purchasers for no additional consideration resulting in a share dilution adjustment, as defined. The Agreement also provides a Most Favored Nations Provision whereby if the Company issues or sells any common stock at terms more favorable within three years, then the Company will be required to amend the Agreement to provide such favorable terms to the Purchasers. The Company paid $33,000 in legal and escrow agent fees, a placement agency fee of $20,000 in the form of a note payable, substantially similar to the Purchasers' notes and agreed to issue 64,000,000 shares of its common stock valued at $640,000 and $20,000 as due diligence fees, all of which have been recorded as debt issuance costs on the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements and will be charged to operations over the twelve months ended December 31, 2015 or to the date of conversion, if earlier. The Company recorded amortization expense of $178,250 on the debt issuance costs during the three months ended March 31, 2015.

Under the Agreement, the Company sold an aggregate of $425,000 in Secured Convertible Notes ("Notes") and issued an additional $20,000 Note for placement fees. Once the Company has fulfilled its obligations as defined by certain equity requirements, the Notes will be convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at the option of the Company. Until the equity obligations are met, the Notes bear interest at 10%, per annum. Interest will be earned at a rate of 10% for the twelve months ending December 31, 2015 or to the date of conversion, whichever is earlier. The conversion price for the Note and interest is equal to $0.006 per share, subject to adjustments as stock dividends and stock splits, as defined.

Each Holder of the Notes has been granted a security interest in assets of the Company in accordance with a Security Agreement. The Security Agreement provides the Collateral Agent a security interest in all goods, machinery, equipment, contract rights and intangibles in the event of a default under the Agreement.

In connection with this Agreement, and under the anti-dilution provisions of the February 2014 private placement, on December 31, 2014, the Company issued an aggregate of 160,093,335 shares of common stock and 13,333,334 warrants to purchase common shares at $0.006 per share to existing stockholders holding securities purchased in that offering.

In addition, the pricing of this Agreement triggered the pricing reset provision in the 3,333,332 warrants issued in the February 14, 2014 private placement. Such triggering resulted in the exercise price of the previously issued warrants resetting to $0.006 from $0.03. At March 31, 2015, using the Black-Scholes Pricing Model, the Company re-valued the remaining February 2014 warrants at $14,537, a decrease in fair value of $15,262 from December 31, 2014 and a decrease in fair value of $556,463 since inception.

Additionally, the Company may not have enough authorized shares on the issuance date of the notes.

The embedded derivative was valued at $594,963 using a binomial valuation model at December 31, 2014. At March 31, 2015, the embedded conversion derivative was revalued to $214,078 and the Company recorded a decrease in the derivative liability of $380,881. - (3) Management determined the dividend yield to be 0% based upon its expectation that it will not pay dividends for the foreseeable future.
- (4) Represents the estimated offering price range in future offerings as determined by management.

Accounting for Convertible Debt

Under the initial accounting, the Company allocated the proceeds to the embedded conversion derivative liability, which exceeded the $445,000 face amount of the convertible debt at the issuance date. The proceeds allocated to the embedded conversion derivative liability were recognized as a discount to the convertible debt. As of December 31, 2014, the Company recorded aggregate debt discounts of $445,000 related to the conversion rights and recorded $149,963 of expense related to the excess value of the derivative over the face amount of the convertible debt.

The debt discount is accreted to interest expense over the life of the convertible debentures using an effective interest method. For the three months ended March 31, 2015, the company amortized $172,543 of the debt discount.

2013 Financing

Following the closing of the recapitalization in 2013, the Company sold an aggregate of 1,826,087 units ("Units") in a private placement ("Private Placement"). $419,999.88 of the Units were sold at a per Unit price of $0.23. Additionally, an aggregate of $394,612 of the then outstanding 10% convertible promissory notes and accrued interest converted into the Private Placement at a per Unit price of $0.19. Each Unit consisted of (i) one share of the Company's common stock (or, at the election of any investor who would, as a result of the purchase of Units, become a beneficial owner of 5% or greater of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company's Series A Convertible Preferred Stock) and (ii) a three year warrant to purchase shares of common stock equal to 100% of the number of shares of common stock sold in the Private Placement at an exercise price of $0.30 per share. In connection with the Private Placement, the Company and the investor entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement") whereby the Company agreed to register the shares underlying the Units and issuable upon exercise of warrants for resale on a Registration Statement to be filed with the SEC within 60 days of the final closing of the Private Placement and to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective within 120 days of the filing date. On May 15, 2013, the Registrations Rights Agreement was amended to extend the filing date from 120 days to 180 days after the closing date. On July 2, 2013, the Registrations Rights Agreement was further amended to extend the filing date from 180 days to 240 days after the closing date. The Company filed a Registration Statement on Form S-1 on September 25, 2013 to register an aggregate of 158,652,485 shares of the Company's stock; however, the Registration Statement was subsequently withdrawn by the Company and has not been re-filed.

On March 8, 2013, the Board of Directors approved the authorization of 150,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001, per share, of which 40,000,000 shares have been designated as Series A Preferred Stock. Each holder of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to vote on all matters and the shares are convertible to the Company's common stock in an amount equal to one share of common stock for each one share of Series A Preferred Stock upon notice to the Company, as defined.

On March 15, 2013, the Company commenced a second private placement, offering a minimum of 1,000,000 units at $0.03 per unit, each comprised of one share of common stock and a warrant to purchase one share of common stock at an exercise price of $0.05, per share, for three years. The warrants are subject to registration rights, as defined and cashless exercise is permitted. On April 25, 2013, the Company consummated the private placement which began on March 15, 2013 and sold to certain accredited investors an aggregate of 28,333,334 units with proceeds to the Company of $850,000 less $150,000 of offering costs. The offering costs include 2,083,334 units valued at $62,500 for legal fees and a warrant to purchase up to 933,333 shares of the Company's common stock.

In connection with the offering, the Company granted the investors demand registration rights, commencing 30 days after the closing of the Offering and ending one year after the closing of the Offering, pursuant to which investors holding at least 50% of the outstanding securities sold in the Offering may request on 60 days' notice, the filing of a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, covering the resale of securities underlying the units. Additionally, the Company granted the investors "piggy-back" registration rights for a period of 180 days beginning on the closing date of the Offering. The Company added a Supplement to the Security Purchase Agreement, offering any investor of units who as a result of the purchase becomes a beneficial owner of 5% or more of the outstanding number of common shares, the option to purchase units consisting of one share of the Company's Series A Preferred Convertible Stock and a warrant.

In connection with the sale of the Units, the Company was required to issue to investors in the January 9, 2013 private placement (the "Prior Investors, and such offering, the "Prior Offering") additional shares of common stock (or, at the election of such Prior Investor who would, as a result of such issuance, become the holder of in excess of 5% of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock, shares of Series A Preferred Stock), in connection with certain anti-dilution protection provided to such Prior Investors under the terms of the Prior Offering. As a result of the foregoing, in April 2013, the Company issued an aggregate of an additional (a) 3,789,473 shares of common stock (b) 19,191,458 shares of Series A Preferred Stock and (c) warrants to purchase an additional 22,980,931 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.03 per share (collectively, the "Ratchet Securities"). Furthermore, the exercise price of the warrants issued in the Prior Offering was reduced to a per share exercise price of $0.03.

In connection with the Offering and in consideration for such issuance, the stockholders released the Company from actions relating to the Company's reverse-merger and various financings as well as from any rights under that certain Agreement of Shareholders of Be Active Brands, Inc. dated as of January 26, 2011, management determined that it was in the best interest of its stockholders to issue additional shares of common stock to certain of the original stockholders of Brands who, as a result of the reverse-merger consummated on January 9, 2013, became stockholders of the Company. Accordingly, the Company issued an aggregate of 23,054,778 shares of common stock to these original Brands stockholders, exclusive of current management, as a result of the significant dilution they experienced as a result of the Offering.

2014 Financing

On February 14, 2014, the Company sold to certain accredited investors pursuant to a Subscription Agreement, an aggregate of 33,333,332 shares of its common stock, 26,666,667 shares of the Series C Preferred Stock and five year warrants to purchase up to an aggregate of 59,999,999 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.03, per share, for gross proceeds of $1,800,000. Until the earlier of (i) three years from the closing of the Offering or (ii) such time as no investor holds any shares of common stock underlying warrants or underlying the Series C Preferred Stock, in the event the Company issues or sells common stock at a per share price equal to less than $0.03, per share, as adjusted, the Company has agreed to issue additional securities such that the aggregate purchase price paid by the investor shall equal the lower price issuance, subject to certain exceptions, as defined. The Company recorded a derivative liability related to the reset feature on the exercise price of the warrants to purchase common stock issued by the Company.

In connection with the Offering, the Company granted the investors "piggy-back" registration rights and the investors are entitled to a right of participation in future financings conducted by the Company for a period of twenty-four months.

The Company paid placement agent fees of $144,000 in cash, issued an aggregate of 599,999 shares of the Company's common stock and issued a five year warrant to purchase up to 5,399,998 shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $0.03 per share, as commission in connection with the sale of the shares and warrants. In addition, the Company permitted the conversion of an aggregate of $13,500 of unpaid fees owed to a consultant into 450,000 shares and warrants at the Offering price. In conjunction with the Offering, $100,000 was placed in an escrow account to be used for auditing and legal fees. As of December 31, 2014, the balance in the escrow account is $12,500.

On February 14, 2014, as a component of the Subscription Agreement, the Company issued an aggregate of 66,333,330 warrants with a fair value determined using the Black-Scholes Pricing Model.

Pursuant to the subscription agreement, certain members of the Company's management agreed to invest an aggregate of $250,000 in exchange for 8,333,333 shares of the Company's common stock within 30 days of the closing, on the same terms of the agreement. The investment required by management was made on June 24, 2014.

As a result of both the 2013 and 2014 financing and the conversion feature on its convertible debt, the Company recorded derivative liabilities related to the respective ratchet provision. Such ratchet reset provision prohibits the Company from concluding that the warrants are indexed to our own stock, and thus derivative accounting is appropriate. For derivative instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair market value and is then re-valued at each reporting date to its then fair value, with changes in such fair value measurement recognized in operations in the respective reporting period. The Company utilizes the Black-Scholes model to value the derivative instruments at inception and subsequent valuation dates.

Series B Convertible Preferred Stock

In April 2013, the Company's Board of Directors authorized four (4) shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share as Series B Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock") and issued one share of Series B Preferred Stock to each of the Company's three senior members of management. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is entitled such number of votes on all matters submitted to stockholders that is equal to (i) the product of (a) the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by such holder, (b) the number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock (taking into account the effective outstanding voting rights of the Series B Preferred Stock), as of the record date for the vote and (c) 0.13334 less (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially held by such holder on such date. Additionally, on the six month anniversary date of issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock, each outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock was to automatically, and without further action on the part of the holder, convert into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock as would cause the holder to own, along with any other securities of the Company's beneficially owned on the conversion date by them 13.334% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock, calculated on the conversion date. On October 25, 2013, the Company amended and restated the Certificate of Designation for Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to extend the date on which the Series B Shares would automatically convert into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of common stock, from the date six months from the date of issuance (October 26, 2013) to the twelfth month anniversary of the date of issuance of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock (April 26, 2014) which on April 22, 2014, was further extended to an indefinite date. The Company previously recorded the three shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock as stock-based compensation using the then current estimate of the number of shares that would convert to shares of common stock of the Company based on the shares outstanding and current price per share at each balance sheet date. As of March 31, 2014, the Company recalculated the estimated shares issuable to be 112,229,168 and recorded stock-based compensation of $10,423,447 for the three months ended March 31, 2014. The estimate was based on the current common shares outstanding at March 31, 2014, a stock price of $0.11 per share, and is subject to adjustment based on any additional common shares issued.

On March 2, 2015, the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock which was then outstanding was cancelled and as a result, the Company's obligation to issue any common shares in connection therewith ended. The Company has accounted for the cancellation of the Series B and issuance of the Series D as an extinguishment. Accordingly, for the three months ended March 31, 2015, the Company recorded an aggregate gain of $3,420,804 within stockholders' deficit equal to the difference between the $667,664 fair value of the Series D preferred stock and the $4,088,468 carrying amount of the Series B preferred stock extinguished. The gain on extinguishment is reflected in the calculation of net income attributable to common stockholders.

CORPORATE OVERVIEW

Be Active Holdings, Inc. f/k/a Superlight, Inc. ("we," "Be Active" or the "Company") was incorporated as a Delaware corporation on December 27, 2007. On December 28, 2012, the Company amended and restated its Certificate of Incorporation to change its name from "Super Light Inc." to "Be Active Holdings, Inc."

Since inception and until our merger with Be Active Brands, Inc. ("Be Active Brands") on January 9, 2013, as further described herein, we conducted market analysis on diaper usage in our target market, researched governmental regulations for the importing of such products, and negotiated pricing with possible suppliers.

Prior to the merger, the business we currently operate was conducted through our wholly owned subsidiary Be Active Brands. The discussion of our business both before and after the merger in this Form 10-Q is that of our current business which was and continues to be conducted through Be Active Brands.

Be Active Brands was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on March 10, 2009. The Company manufactures and sells low fat, low calorie, all natural probiotic enriched frozen yogurt and ice cream under the trade name "Jala" and has trademarked its Jala cow logo. Its frozen yogurt is packaged as low fat sandwiches and bars which are designed to appeal to the health conscious or weight conscious consumer.

Recent Developments

On January 9, 2013, we entered into an Agreement of Merger and Plan of Reorganization (the "Merger Agreement") with Be Active Brands and Be Active Acquisition Corp., our newly formed, wholly-owned Delaware subsidiary ("Acquisition Sub"). Upon closing of the transaction contemplated under the Merger Agreement (the "Merger"), Acquisition Sub merged with and into Be Active, and Be Active, as the surviving corporation, became our wholly-owned subsidiary.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement:

All issued and outstanding shares of Be Active's Class A and Class B common stock were converted into the right to receive an aggregate of 29,502,750 shares of the Company's common stock, $0.0001 par value per share ("Common Stock"). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, holders of Be Active's Class A and Class B common stock were treated equally as it relates to consideration paid in connection with the Merger.

Following the closing of the Merger, the Company sold an aggregate of 3,902,993 units ("January Units") in a private placement (the "January Private Placement"). $419,999.88 of the January Units were sold at a per unit price of $0.23. Additionally, and included in the foregoing January Unit total, an aggregate of $385,000 of bridge notes of Be Active, plus accrued interest of $9,612 converted into the January Private Placement at per January Unit price of $0.19. Each January Unit consisted of (i) one share of the Company's common stock, and (ii) a three year warrant to purchase shares of common stock equal to 100% of the number of shares of common stock sold in the January Private Placement at an exercise price of $0.30 per share. In connection with the January Private Placement, the Company and the investors entered into a Registration Rights Agreement whereby the Company agreed to register the shares underlying the units and issuable upon exercise of warrants for resale on a Registration Statement, to be filed with the SEC within 60 days of the final closing of the January Private Placement and to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective within 120 days of the filing date.

In May 2013 the Registration Rights Agreement was amended to extend the filing to 180 days from the filing date. On July 2, 2013 the Registrations Rights Agreement was further amended to extend the filing date from 180 days to 240 days after the closing date. On September 25, 2013, the Company filed a Registration Statement on Form S-1 to register an aggregate of 158,652,485 shares of the Company's common stock, however, the Registration Statement never went effective and the shares were not registered.

Immediately following the closing of the Merger and the Private Placement, under the terms of an Agreement of Conveyance, Transfer and Assignment of Assets and Assumption of Obligations, the Company transferred all of its pre-Merger assets and liabilities to its wholly owned subsidiary, Superlight Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("SplitCo"). Thereafter, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company transferred all of the outstanding capital stock of SplitCo to a former officer and director of the Company in exchange for cancellation of an aggregate of 90,304,397 shares of the Company's common stock held by such person.

On April 25, 2013, the Company entered into subscription agreements (the "April Agreements") with certain accredited investors (the "April Investors") whereby it sold an aggregate of 28,333,334 units (the "April Units") with gross proceeds to the Company of $850,000 (the "April Private Placement"), less $150,000 of offering costs. The offering costs include 2,083,334 Units valued at $62,500 for legal fees. Each April Unit was sold for a purchase price of $0.03 per unit and consisted of: (i) one share of the Company's Common Stock (or at the election of the April Investor who would, as a result of the purchase of the April Units, hold in excess of 5% of the Company's issued and outstanding Common Stock, one share of the Company's newly designated Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Series A Preferred Stock"), which is convertible into shares of the Company's Common Stock on a one for one basis) and (ii) a five-year warrant (the "April Warrants") to purchase an additional share of Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.05 per share, subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events such as lower priced issuances, stock splits and dividends. In connection with the April Private Placement, the Company granted the April Investors demand registration rights, commencing 30 days after the closing of the April Private Placement and ending one year after the closing of the April Private Placement, pursuant to which April Investors holding at least 50% of the outstanding securities sold in the April Private Placement may request, on 60 days' notice, the filing of a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, covering the resale of securities underlying the April Units. Additionally, the Company granted the April Investors "piggy-back" registration rights for a period of 180 days beginning on the closing date of the April Private Placement.

In connection with the sale of the April Units, the Company was required to issue to the investors in the January Private Placement additional shares of Common Stock (or, at the election of such investor in the January Private Placement who would, as a result of such issuance, become the holder of in excess of 5% of the Company's issued and outstanding Common Stock, shares of Series A Preferred Stock), in connection with certain anti-dilution protection provided to such investors under the terms of the January Private Placement. As a result of the foregoing, the Company issued an aggregate of an additional (a) 3,789,473 shares of Common Stock (b) 19,191,458 shares of Series A Preferred Stock and (c) warrants to purchase an additional 22,980,931 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.03 per share. Furthermore, the exercise price of the warrants issued in the Prior Offering was reduced to a per share exercise price of $0.03.

In connection with the April Private Placement, management determined that it was in the best interest of its shareholders to issue additional shares of Common Stock to certain of the original investors of Be Active Brands, who, as a result of the Merger, became shareholders of the Company. As a result, the Company issued an aggregate of 23,054,778 shares of Common Stock to certain of the former shareholders of Be Active as a result of the significant dilution such shareholders experienced as a result of the April Private Placement. In consideration for such issuance, the shareholders released the Company from actions relating to the Company's reverse merger and various financings as well as from any rights under that certain Agreement of Shareholders of Be Active Brands, Inc. dated as of January 26, 2011.

Additionally, on April 26, 2013, the Company designated four (4) shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share as Series B Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock") and issued one share of Series B Preferred Stock to each of the Company's three members of management, to wit: Saverio Pugliese, David Wolfson and Joseph Rienzi. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to such number of votes on all matters submitted to shareholders that is equal to (i) the product of (a) the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by such holder, (b) the number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock (taking into account the effective outstanding voting rights of the Series B Preferred Stock), as of the record date for the vote and (c) 0.13334 less (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially held by such holder on such date. Additionally, on the six month anniversary date of the date of issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock, each outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock shall automatically, and without further action on the part of the holder, convert into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock as shall cause the holder to own, along with any other securities of the Company beneficially owned on the conversion date by them, 13.334% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Company, calculated on the conversion date. On October 25, 2013 the Company amended and restated the Certificate of Designation for the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to extend the date on which the Series B Shares would automatically convert into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of common stock, from the date six months from the date of issuance (October 26, 2013) to the twelfth month anniversary of the date of issuance of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock (April 26, 2014). On April 22, 2014, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Certificate of Designation for the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to extend the date on which the Series B would automatically convert into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock as will cause the holder to own, along with any other securities of the Company beneficially owned on the conversion date by them, 13.334% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Company, from the date 12 months from the date of issuance of such Series B Shares to such date as will be determined by the Board of Directors.

On, March 2, 2015, the Board of Directors of the Company designated and issued authorized 3,000,000 shares of the Company's authorized Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, as Series D Convertible Preferred Stock. Each holder of the Series D Preferred Stock ("Series D") shall have the number of votes on all matters submitted to the stockholders that is equal to the greater of one hundred votes for each one share of Series D and such number of votes per share of Series D that when added to the votes per shares of all other shares of Series D shall equal 50.1% of the outstanding voting record. The Series D are convertible into common stock in an amount equal to one share of the Company's common stock for each one share of Series D. On March 9, 2015, the Company granted as compensation 1,000,000 shares of the Series D to each of three officers of the Company to be recorded at the fair value at the date of issuance.

On March 2, 2015, the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock which was then outstanding was cancelled and as a result, the Company's obligation to issue any common shares in connection therewith ended.

On February 4, 2014, the holders representing a majority of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company voted and approved and permitted the Company to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company's common stock from 400,000,000 to 525,000,000. On March 12, 2015, the holders representing a majority of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company voted and approved and permitted the Company to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company's common stock from 525,000,000 to 750,000,000, effective upon filing an amended Certificate of Incorporation with the State of Delaware representing the amendment.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses, consisting of selling, general and administrative expenses, stock-based compensation, increase (decrease) in fair value of derivative liability and depreciation and amortization expense for the three months ended March 31, 2015 decreased to ($180,361) from an expense of $21,947, 908 for the three months ended March 31, 2014, a decrease in expense of $22,128,269. This decrease is due to a decrease in stock based compensation of $10,423,447 and a decrease in the fair value of the derivative liability of $11,783,945 for the three months ended March 31, 2015. The stock based compensation in 2014 resulted from the issuance of Series B preferred shares, while in 2015 no such issuances occurred. The decrease in derivative liability from 2014 to 2015 resulted from the input changes in the pricing models used to determine fair values.

Selling expenses consist primarily of advertising, promotion and marketing fees. Selling expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2015 increased to $43,576 from $8,111 for the three months ended March 31, 2014, an increase of $35,465 or 437%. General and administrative expenses consist primarily of office, utilities, computer, internet, travel and insurance expenses. General and administrative expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2015 increased to $291,977 from $249,750 for the three months ended March 31, 2014, an increase of $42,227 or 17%. Other income (expense) decreased to ($337,010) for the three months ended March 31, 2015 as compared to other income of $247,044 for the three months ended March 31, 2014. This increase in expense is the result of an increase in expense in amortization of deferred financing costs and debt discount of $350,793 and interest expense $11,772 all incurred as a result of the capital raise in December 2014. There was also a decrease in forgiveness of debt income of $221,466 from $247,021 for the three months ended March 31, 2014 as compared to $25,555 for the three months ended March 31, 2015.

This increase is due to decreases in stock-based compensation, and a change in fair value of derivative liability as discussed above, as well as a gain on extinguishment of Series B preferred stock of $3,420,804 in 2015, which is a component of net income attributable to common stockholders.

Income (Loss) per Common Share

Basic income or (loss) per share for the three month periods ending March 31, 2015 and 2014 is calculated using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Fully diluted income (loss) per share is computed similar to basic income (loss) per share except that the denominator for fully diluted income per share is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued in order to present their dilutive effect. Potential common shares consist of incremental common shares issuable upon the exercise of warrants and convertible preferred shares. Diluted loss per share excludes the shares issuable upon the exercise of the warrants and convertible preferred stock from the calculation of net loss per share as their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Total current assets at March 31, 2015 were $775,488, current liabilities were $1,281,420 and we had negative working capital of $505,932. Significant losses from operations have been incurred since inception and there is an accumulated deficit of $16,314,377 and stockholders' deficit of $791,343 as of March 31, 2015. Continuation as a going concern is dependent upon the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating expenses until it becomes profitable. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2015, the Company used $405,862 in cash from operations. During the comparative 2014 quarter, the Company used $363,380 in cash flow from operations, while raising $1,535,835 in cash from financing activities.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements, including unrecorded derivative instruments that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future material effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources. We have certain warrants and options outstanding but we do not expect to receive sufficient proceeds from the exercise of these instruments unless and until the trading price of our common stock is significantly greater than the applicable exercise prices of the options and warrants and mainly following any necessary registering of underlying securities.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Not Applicable.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures*Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

At the end of the period covered by this report, we conducted an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and Rule 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act). Based upon this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act are: (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms, and (ii) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our President and Chief Financial Officer, or officers performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in internal control over financial reporting

There have been no changes in our internal controls over financial reporting during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Our internal control over financial reporting is not currently effective due to the following:

Currently there is a lack of proper segregation of functions, duties and responsibilities with respect to our cash and control over the related disbursements due to our limited staff and accounting personnel. Management is aware that there is a lack of segregation of duties due to the small number of employees dealing with administrative and financial matters. In the future, management intends to continue to utilize additional staff to handle certain administrative financial duties.

In addition, the Company's limited accounting staff may not allow for us to properly account for complex accounting transactions, which could lead to a material misstatement of our financial statements.

Finally, there has been a lack of controls over the control environment in that the Board of Directors is comprised of two members who are officers of the Company. As of yet, there is no formal audit committee and no compensation committee. As the Company matures, management will continue to expand the Board of Directors.

On February 25, 2015, the Company attended a mediation session and subsequently settled the claim.
